

Third Lobbying & Advocacy Training Workshop

Successfully completed!

During the week 4-8 April 2016 in partnership with The Hague Academy for Local Governance, ADPC successfully held its 3rd Lobbying and Advocacy training workshop.

The workshop was held in The Hague in the context of the Diaspora Academy project. The Diaspora Academy strives to strengthen the skills, knowledge and competencies of African diaspora based in Europe in the area of Lobbying and Advocacy in order to bring about their respective development initiatives to the attention of key decision makers to effect positive change. The training brought together a group of 10 vibrant African diaspora coming originally from Uganda, Ghana, Kenya, Nigeria, Sudan and DRC currently based in the UK, Italy, Hungary, The Netherlands, Ireland and Switzerland. The workshop report will be available in due course.

From us at ADPC we would like to congratulate the group on completing the course !
