

The E-learning programme on Migration and Development is intended for African policy makers who are responsible for diaspora engagement, policy development and implementation in their respective countries. Building on best-practices and the latest insights from academics, policymakers and practitioners worldwide, this executive course explores how African migrants can be supported to contribute to the development of their countries of origin – be it via remittances, investments, tourism, technological support, international networks, or otherwise.

2015 MAY

Week 1: May 4-10

Global migration patterns
Activities of international org

Week 2: May 11-17

Remittances
Brain drain into brain gain

Week 3: May 18-24

Circular migration
Protection of migrants abroad

Week 4: May 25-29

Return migration
Diaspora policy

Provides

- In-depth knowledge on how African migrants can be supported to contribute to the development of their countries of origin.
- Tailor-made learning experience immediately applicable in your professional work
- A highly interactive programme with direct feedback from professional coaches
- Numerous suggestions of how remittances can be increased, how brain gain can be realized, and how citizens abroad can be better protected

Allows for

- Flexibility to combine assignments with your daily work requirements
- Incorporation of input and challenges from own work experience

Requires

- A good working knowledge of English
- Full Internet access
- Candidates to work within national or sub national African government institutions African tasked with diaspora engagement, including embassies, ministries of foreign affairs, central banks, etc.
- Candidates to be prepared for a workload of about 10 hours a week during May 2015.

Free of charge

- Only 30 candidates are selected
- Candidates are selected based on merit

Application deadline

26 April, 2015

For more details and application

<http://migration.netuni.nl>