

E-learning programme on Migration and Development

The E-learning programme on Migration and Development is intended for African policy makers who are responsible for diaspora engagement, policy development and implementation in their respective countries. Building on best-practices and the latest insights from academics, policymakers and practitioners worldwide, this executive course explores how African migrants can be supported to contribute to the development of their countries of origin— be it via remittances, investments, tourism, technological support, international networks, or otherwise.

2015 October

Week 1: October 5-9

Global migration patterns
Activities of International Institutions

Week 2: October 12-16

Remittances
Brain drain into brain gain

Week 3: October 19-23

Circular Migration
Migrant Protection

Week 4: October 26-30

Migrant Support
Mainstreaming Diaspora Policy

Application deadline:

10 September, 2015

For more information about ADPC visit:

<http://www.diaspora-centre.org/>

For more information and the application form visit:

Online course Migration & Development

Provides

- ✓ In-depth knowledge on how African migrants can be supported to contribute to the development of their countries of origin
- ✓ Tailor-made learning experience immediately applicable in your professional work
- ✓ A highly interactive programme with direct feedback from professional coaches
- ✓ Numerous suggestions how remittances can be increased, how brain gain can be realized, and how citizens abroad can be better protected

Allows for

- ✓ Flexibility to combine assignments with your daily work requirements
- ✓ Incorporation of input and challenges from own work experience
- ✓ Creating viable relationships

Course details

- ✓ Course is free of charge
- ✓ Workload: 10 hours a week during October 2015
- ✓ Only 30 candidates are selected
- ✓ Candidates are selected based on merit

Requires

- ✓ Candidates to work within national or sub national African government institutions tasked with diaspora engagement, including embassies, ministries of foreign affairs, central banks, etc.
- ✓ A good working knowledge of English
- ✓ Full Internet access